IT Intern
(Network Support Technician)

Downers Grove, Illinois

CompTIA is the world's leading trade association for the information technology (IT) industry. We are currently recruiting one talented individual for the position of IT Intern, Network Support Technician. The IT Intern, Network Support Technician will work in support of CompTIA's IT department for the development of basic network and troubleshooting skills.

Job Responsibilities Include:

- Assist IT staff with desktop support (PC's & Macs)
- Deploy workstations to staff
- Misc. network support (printers & peripherals)
- Audio/ Video Support
- Corporate image deployments (PC's & Macs)
- Training & testing in CompTIA A+ Certification
- Training & testing in CompTIA Network+ Certification
- Additional CompTIA Certifications also possible

Job Qualifications Include:

- Computer related field of study
- Experience working on networks and computers
- Interest to learn a wide array of technologies
- Desire to achieve one or more CompTIA Certifications
- 30-35 hours/ week
- Summer Internship
- Flex Schedule

Please send resume and cover letter to hr@comptia.org for immediate consideration.

About CompTIA

CompTIA is the voice of the world's information technology (IT) industry. We are dedicated to advancing industry growth through educational programs, market research, networking events, professional certifications, and public policy advocacy. For more information, please visit www.comptia.org.

CompTIA offers a fast-paced but business casual environment where learning and company engagement are encouraged. We believe in promoting a successful work-life balance, and offer telecommuting, flex time, and summer hours options.

CompTIA

© 2010 The Computing Technology Industry Association, Inc. All rights reserved.