

Congratulations on making the decision to pursue a CompTIA certification! Our global, vendor-neutral certifications are trusted industry-wide as an accurate predictor of employee success. Earning a certification not only proves you have the right skills and knowledge, but also the dedication and commitment to your IT career to continue learning.

Preparing for the Test

You can find everything you need to learn, prepare, and take your certification exam at www.comptia.org/certifications. Download objectives and practice questions, find out where to get your training materials, schedule your exam at a training center, and purchase a voucher.

Purchasing and Redeeming Vouchers

When you are ready to purchase your voucher, visit www.comptiastore.eu. The CompTIA Marketplace is your one-stop shop for certification vouchers, training materials and access to eLearning resources. The CompTIA Marketplace brings you all the training and testing resources you need to help you prepare for the exam and advance your career.

Your CompTIA certification voucher will need to be purchased in the currency of the country in which you will be sitting for the exam. For a complete list of 2011 exam prices, please visit www.comptia.org/certifications/testprep/pricing.aspx.

Getting Started in the CompTIA Marketplace

If you are new to CompTIA Marketplace, use the following steps to get started.

STEP 1 Create a log-in for the CompTIA Marketplace store.

If you do not have an account with CompTIA Marketplace, feel free to create a new account:

A. Click the "My Account" link at the top right side of our site.

B. At the New Customers heading, click the "Continue" button to begin your first-time registration.

C. Follow the prompts to complete the creation of your account.
Note: This is a separate log-in from your CompTIA log-in. You must create a new log-in to access your CompTIA Marketplace Store account.

STEP 2 Validate your CompTIA Member ID

To receive the CompTIA member discount, you must be a Corporate Member of CompTIA. Until you validate your Member ID, your purchases will not be eligible for the discount. Once your Member ID has been validated (which may take up to 24 hours), your purchases will be eligible for the discount. If you have not already done so, validate your CompTIA Corporate Member ID.

For further information on validating your Member ID, these step-by-step instructions will help you to validate your CompTIA Corporate Member ID.

STEP 3 Shop the CompTIA Marketplace store

Once you have created a login and validated your CompTIA Member ID, you are ready to shop the CompTIA Marketplace.
