

David Taylor

Vice President, SLED Government Solutions
Software AG Government Solutions

David Taylor is Vice President of State and Local Government Solutions for Software AG, where he serves as market strategist and subject matter expert for these government practices. He brings over 30 years of experience in Florida State Government to Software AG.

Prior to joining Software AG, David was the Chief Information Officer of the State of Florida and Executive Director for the Agency for Enterprise Information Technology. He also was the Chief Information Officer for the Florida Department of Children and Families and the Florida Department of Health.