

MIKE CULP

Information Technology Director, Albemarle County, VA

Charlottesville, VA — 2003 - Present

- Leads a team of IT professionals serving all aspects of local government for Albemarle County, VA
- Member of the Operations Leadership Team
- Manages IT services for fifteen county office locations and many other agencies and community partners
- Supports County Board of Supervisors' strategic initiatives through technology projects

Relevant Broadband Support Activities

- Helped Establish Albemarle Broadband Authority Appointed Chief Administrative Officer 2019
- Involved in four Virginia Telecommunication Initiative grant projects Primary grant writer and manager of projects 2017-Present
- Provides citizen, business, and Internet Service Provider support
- Assists Virginia localities with administrative broadband related tasks

EDUCATION

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA
B.A., Theater — 1982

Computer Learning Center, Springfield, VA
Certificate in Computer Programming - 1984

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA
LEAD – 2013

Rutgers University Center for Government Services, New Brunswick, NJ
Certified Government Chief Information Officer Program - 2019

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Leadership Charlottesville Class of 2005
Youth Basketball and Lacrosse Coach
BSA Leader, Aquatics
Rivanna River Regatta Volunteer
Albemarle County Parks Trails Volunteer
Tech Tour, Initial Year Co-Chair
PVCC Tech Industry Representative