

Dr. Salvador Landeros Ayala

With more than 40 years of experience in both, Industry and University, Dr.Salvador Landeros was the first Director of the Mexican Telecommunication Satellite and has had several positions in private and government organizations. He received his Engineer Degree from the National University of Mexico in 1977, a Master on Science Degree from the University of Pennsylvania,USA in 1980 and a Phd from The National University of Mexico in 1999, all of them in Electrical Engineering. He was professor at UNAM for 40 years. He is a member of the National Academy of Engineering and also member of the Pan-American Academy of Engineering. He has been President of leader engineering organizations and received several awards like the National Engineering Award, the Professional Excellence Award and the Panamerican Order to Professional Merit among others. Currently he is president of the Mexican Space Agency.